

NEW TRIER TOWNSHIP Volunteer Awards

The Special Service Award recognizes exemplary individual service to the Township. In 2008, Padraig Brennen of Wilmette (center) was recognized for her service of six years as member and three years as Chair of the Township Committee on Mental Health. Jerome Ginsburg of Glenview (left) was recognized for being a member of the Township Committee on Youth for six years and serving as Chair for two years. Trustee Alan Goldberg presented the awards.

In 2007, New Trier Township presented a Special Service Award to five Township residents who serve as Peer Jury Youth Advocates. As Peer Jury Advocates they serve as a resource to juvenile offenders and their family and ensure that all proceedings outside the courtroom are done in a manner that is fair to the offender and consistent with Peer Jury guidelines.

From left to right: New Trier Township Supervisor Patricia B. Cantor, Peer Jury Advocate Ellyn Stone of Glencoe, New Trier Township Community Services Administrator Brian Leverenz, Peer Jury Advocate Gerri Kahnweiler of Winnetka, Peer Jury Advocates Barry Spector and Joy O'Malley, both of Wilmette.(not shown Elaine Tinberg of Winnetka.)

New Trier Township Supervisor Patricia B. Cantor of Glencoe and New Trier Township Trustee Diane G. Fisher of Wilmette awarded Wilmette resident Elliott Robbins with the New Trier Township Excellence Award in 2006. The Special Service Award recognizes volunteers who have served six years on an advisory committee, two years as the chair. Robbins has served as Chair of the Committee on Health & Human Services for two years and a committee member for four years.

Also in 2006, New Trier Township Supervisor Patricia B. Cantor of Glencoe (left) and Trustee Bob Shen of Wilmette (right) awarded Christina Codo of Winnetka (center) the Special Service Award and Excellence Award The Excellence Award recognizes an individual for efforts above and beyond the regular scope of a volunteer.

Codo served as a leader and member of the Township's Advisory Committee on Youth.